Sponsor Affidavit

I understand that this affidavit is a binding document and by signing in front of a notary public (or applicable designated authority) I am attesting to the student, Florida Polytechnic University and the US Department of Homeland Security – Student Exchange and Visitor Program, that I will sponsor the student and assume financial responsibility for their estimated costs of attendance while they are enrolled at Florida Poly until program completion. I affirm the student will not be without adequate financial support, the necessary resources, or become a public ward. I understand estimate costs are subject to change without prior notice and do not intend to represent an exact cost. I am fully aware that submitting false and misleading statements or documents may adversely affect the student, whereas their admission and any financial awards (as applicable) can be rescinded, and they are required to return to their home country. I confirm that the bank documents or letters I submit must show sufficient funds that meet or exceed the estimated costs of attendance.
